

NOTE: Throughout this Article, permitted uses and special exceptions are organized by categories of use, such as "resource production" uses and "institutional" uses. The language introducing each category of use shall of itself carry no legal meaning, but rather serves an organizational purpose only.

Section 3. Rural Conservation District (RC)

A. Purpose

The Rural Conservation District includes lands with multiple natural resource constraints; and/or that are especially important for their recreational, scenic, or other resource-based opportunities, including farming and woodlands; and/or that are especially important for long-term protection of water quality. The Comprehensive Plan found that while these lands are not as fragile as areas designated for resource protection, their development would be problematical for the environment and/or would deny opportunity for long-term management of the land for forestry, agriculture, and wildlife. The purpose of this district is to allow a level of development and activity consistent with the conservation of the natural features of these lands.

B. Permitted Uses

The following uses are permitted in the Rural Conservation District:
